« On a eu du succès avec lui parce qu'on savait qu'il adorait, [illegible] Il était un peu fatigué de la tournée médias, mais voir l'écolier l'a détendu. On a créé un échange comme si on était potes, avec des questions de jeunes. Les sportifs ont pour la plupart les codes de ce nouveau format, on parle la même langue. On n'est pas là pour faire du buzz seulement pour mettre en avant le sport. On ne va jamais descendre un athlète. »

« On a reçu des demandes de personnes dont la référence était une chaîne YouTube, [illegible] L'équipe [illegible] Mais en France, il y a une convention, avec des accréditations visées conjointement par le Comité olympique et le JeF. Et, comme d'habitude, il faut sa carte de presse pour être considéré comme journaliste sur un événement. On n'a pas les mêmes devoirs et pas les mêmes droits. Le CIO et tous les organisateurs préfèrent les influenceurs, c'est qu'ils ont le sentiment de pouvoir contrôler le contenu. Puis ils attirent un public que les médias traditionnels ont du mal à capter. »

« On est devenus un peu leurs chouchous, [illegible] On va sur les sites avec notre accréditation, mais on ne peut pas filmer la compétition ou les athlètes. On se filme en train de réagir à une performance ou à une ambiance, le but étant de donner envie aux gens d'aller regarder les Jeux sur la chaîne. »

« On n'est pas rémunérés par [illegible] mais être accrédité nous donne accès aux sites, à leur studio et à certains de leurs invités, ce qui nous offre de l'exposition. La rémunération, elle nous vient des partenariats avec les marques et de notre audience. Et comme on a engrangé énormément de vues grâce à nos accès sur les JO, c'est la plus belle opération de notre vie, surtout en seulement deux semaines [illegible] plusieurs dizaines de milliers d'euros [illegible] content creator [illegible] La tête dans le guidon [illegible] y a ne colle pas à notre format incarné par nous-mêmes. On ne tend pas un micro. »

[illegible] entertainment [illegible] Il y a cinquante ans, l'élite refusait que les consultants soient assis en tribune de presse. Aujourd'hui, ils font totalement partie du paysage, [illegible] à un moment ou un autre, il faudra définir un cadre pour les créateurs de contenus. Mais, pour l'instant, c'est beaucoup trop hors du cadre… »
